In cases where bigger demands are outstanding, the Assessing Officers are required to send dessier reports indicating the progress in the recovery of taxes and these reports are reviewed at the level of Commissioner of Income-tax and above. Since a large part of the demand is disputed in appeals etc. steps have also been taken for expeditious disposal of appeals.

(d) The outstanding amount of income-tax/corporation-tax as on 31.3.1989 was Rs. 5292 crores. According to the Action Plan of the Income-tax Department for 1991-92, the income-tax/ corporation-tax demand to be carried forward at the end of current financial year should be 10% less than the arrear demand of Rs. 6695 crores brought forward as on 1.4.1991.
